7. About Hopsters Co-Op

In January 2016, a group of professionals and craft beer enthusiasts began talking about their love of craft beer and discussing how they might start a craft brewing enterprise that was owned by the community and provided mutual support within its community in line with successful international models.

It was decided that the co-operative model was the most appropriate legal model for this enterprise because it was capable of bringing in investment across a whole community and engaging the same community in its activities through active membership.

The name Hopsters Co-operative Brewing was chosen because the name embodies the idea of a young, vibrant and enterprising community business that aims to brew beer and appreciate all aspects of the craft beer industry.

In the last 10 years there have been many new enterprises focused upon brewing small lots of different craft beers and these have appealed to many people who like beer and appreciate the different styles of beer that are now available in Australia. The success of these small craft breweries has meant that they are either replicated or bought by larger commercial interests and they lose the essence of small-scale craft brewing. The difference between these new enterprises and Hopsters Co-operative Brewing is that under the co-operative model the members own the brewery and support its operations.

The business model for Hopsters Co-op is one that provides multiple avenues for engagement between members, the community and the co-operative. We aim to establish a brewing business that has true engagement between beer producers, drinkers and enthusiasts as well as with the wider community.

Hopsters Co-op strives to make its events and activities welcoming and accessible to all members of our community. The products that Hopsters Co-op make, as well as our business practices, will reflect the values and needs of our owner-members with a specific emphasis placed on building a supportive and educational environment and engaging with our local community.

To become a member of Hopsters Co-op each person contributes a minimum, once off contribution of $250 for 5 x $50 shares in the co-operative (a “membership fee”).

Members may also purchase additional shares in the co-operative. Under the Co-operatives National Law (CNL) no single member can own more than 20% of the co-operative.

8. Hopsters Co-op Mission, Vision, Values, Principles

Hopsters Co-op's Mission

"To brew exceptional quality craft beer leveraging the principles of the co-operative business structure".

Hopsters Co-op's Vision

"To foster a community to connect, learn, create and have fun through beer".

Hopsters Co-op's Values

Collaboration – Hopsters Co-op will be the birthplace for great beer. Our members will have an integral part in designing and voting on what beer we produce. The beer will not simply be the Brewery's beers. It will be a true reflection of our members and belong to them.

Education – We believe that beer education will foster a deeper appreciation for beer. We will promote beer education through a range of activities, such as Learn To Brew classes that will be developed and evolve according to the preferences of our members.

Community – Hopsters Co-op plans to be a viable member in the local community and across Australia. We look forward to building relationships with craft brewers, other co-operatives and local businesses.

The co-operative principles from Co-operatives National Law (Act 2012 no 29)

1. Voluntary and open membership

Co-operatives are voluntary organisations, open to all persons able to use their services and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without gender, social, racial, political or religious discrimination.

2. Democratic member control

Co-operatives are democratic organisations controlled by their members, who actively participate in setting their policies and making decisions. Men and women serving as elected representatives are accountable to the membership. In primary co-operatives members have equal voting rights (1 member, 1 vote) and co-operatives at other levels are organised in a democratic way.

3. Member economic participation

Members contribute equitably to, and democratically control, the capital of their co-operative.

At least part of the capital is usually the common property of the co-operative. They usually receive limited compensation (if any) on capital subscribed as a condition of membership.

Members allocate surpluses for any or all of the following purposes:

- (a) developing the co-operative, possibly by setting up reserves, part of which at least would be indivisible;
- (b) benefiting members in proportion to their transactions with the co-operative;
- (c) supporting other activities approved by the membership.

4. Autonomy and independence

Co-operatives are autonomous, self-help organisations controlled by their members. If they enter into agreements with other organisations, including governments, or raise capital from external sources, they do so on terms that ensure democratic control by their members and maintain their co-operative autonomy.

5. Education, training and information

Co-operatives provide education and training for their members, elected representatives, managers and employees so they can contribute effectively to the development of their cooperatives.

They inform the general public, particularly young people and opinion leaders, about the nature and benefits of co-operation.

6. Co-operation among co-operatives

Co-operatives serve their members most effectively and strengthen the co-operative movement by working together through local, national, regional and international structures.

7. Concern for the community

While focusing on member needs, co-operatives work for the sustainable development of their communities through policies accepted by their members.

Hopsters Co-op guiding principles

The guiding principles of our business model will be:

- Production and operations must be economically sustainable and environmentally responsible.
- Consumption of alcoholic beverages will take place in a community accessible venue and will comply with responsible service of alcohol requirements.
- Promoting an appreciation of beer through education about beer, its ingredients, styles and brewing methods as well as the culture surrounding beer brewing.
- Provide an avenue for home brewers to learn more about the craft of brewing.
- Recognise the value of community by supporting our local community through employment opportunities and participation, engagement in appropriate local events.

The co-operative model of democratic governance and member focus combined with the 7 co-operative principles aligns closely with our Mission.

9. What membership of Hopsters Co-op means

You should read the co-operative's rules for a full explanation of the costs, benefits and responsibilities of membership.

○ Who can be a member

Membership is open to any individual who is at least 18 years old in Australia.

○ Membership and additional shares

Hopsters Co-op is a distributing co-operative and it has a share capital. Each share has a fixed nominal value of $50.

Each member is required to buy a minimum of 5 shares, that is a total share capital contribution of $250. Hopsters Co-op reserves the right to update the share price based on the value of the business and/or current economic conditions such as inflation.

Members may buy more than 5 shares if they wish. A member who has more than the minimum number of shares does not obtain any extra voting rights but may receive greater dividends if and when the co-operative makes a sufficient surplus to declare a dividend in a financial year.

Shares do not carry a vote. Voting is attached to membership, and each member has one vote regardless of the number of shares the member holds.

No single member can own more than 20% of the share capital in the co-operative.

- Administration Fee

Hopsters Co-op reserves the right to charge a $10 application administrative fee for new members. To date, since commencement of taking applications for membership, this fee has been waived.

- Returns to Members

Hopsters Co-op does not expect to be able to pay any returns to members within the first few years of operation. Hopsters Co-op will consider paying dividends to members in the event there is a sufficient surplus in a financial year, while still allowing enough free cash flow to support the ongoing operation of the business.

- Ongoing obligations and active membership requirement

Co-operatives are based on mutual arrangements between members and their co-operative whereby members support their co-operative's main or primary activities through an active membership requirement. The Hopsters Co-op rules (Rule 4) identify two primary activities and require members to support those primary activities in particular ways. Rule 4 is set out below:

(1) Primary activity

For the purposes of Part 2.6 of the Law, the primary activities of the co-operative are:

Brewing, distributing and selling craft beer, and
Conducting beer brewing classes and events

(2) Active membership requirements

To establish and maintain active membership of the co-operative a member must:

- Purchase a minimum value of $100 worth of goods or services from the co-operative each financial year, or
- Participate in a beer brewing class or event at least once each financial year, or
- Joining and participating in a Board appointed committee during the financial year

○ Risk

Hopsters Co-op is embarking on a new business enterprise. All new businesses face the risk of failure. Initial financial information is contained in section 10 of this document.

Hopsters Co-op is incorporated as a co-operative under the Co-operatives National Law and will be a separate legal entity with limited liability. This means that as a member, the most that you may lose if the Hopsters Co-op enterprise fails is the share capital that you have invested in the co-operative. If you have only purchased the minimum share capital of 5 shares for $250, then this is the amount you may lose if Hopsters Co-op fails as an enterprise. Likewise, if you choose to invest more than the minimum by purchasing additional shares or subscribing to Unsecure Notes (lending money to Hopsters), you may lose the entire amount of any additional investment.

Even though Hopsters Co-op is a co-operative the Board of Directors are required to perform their duties in full accordance with the Corporations Law. The Board of Directors is also required to abide by the Director's Code of Conduct, a copy of which is available on the website.

There are some preconditions to the enterprise starting up, such as obtaining local council development consents, Australian Tax Office manufacturing licences, NSW Office of Liquor and Gaming (OLGR) liquor licences and obtaining sufficient start-up capital. If any of these preconditions are not met at various stages of businesses development, then the Directors of Hopsters Co-op may call a meeting to decide what to do and this may mean dissolving the business and returning any capital that has not been used back to members in proportion to their shareholding, or determine if there are sufficient grounds and funds to continue to be used to serve the purpose of the co-operative for it to trade on a solvent basis.

○ Can I lose my membership or stop being a member?

Yes, you will lose it if you don't use it – active membership is key!

You can lose your membership if you don't support the co-operative under the requirements for active membership in Rule 4. Co-operatives only work by serving the needs or wants of their members who, in turn, satisfy those needs or wants by acquiring them from the co-operative. If you do not buy goods or services or attend the required number of events for a period of three years, your membership will be considered inactive and the Board of the co-operative will be required to consider whether to cancel your membership.

You can resign.

A member who finds that they no longer wish to participate in the co-operative can give one month's notice of his or her resignation. On resignation, Hopsters Co-op will repurchase your share capital from you in compliance with Rule 11, taking into account any losses in value of share capital, and as long as it is financially viable for the business to return any funds. The Board reserves the right to withhold any refund should the co-operative not be in a financial position to do so.

You can have your membership cancelled.

Hopsters Co-op will work best with members who understand and support its mission and values and who abide by the rules. As a community-based enterprise that needs to comply with development approval conditions and liquor licensing laws, members who breach the Hopsters Co-op rules or behave in a manner detrimental to the co-operative may find that they will risk suspension and / or expulsion by a vote from the other members (Rules 9 & 12).

- Can I get my money back?

Any administration fee charged at the time of joining (if applicable) is not refundable.

Generally, share capital is not refundable, however, shares in a co-operative are a little different from shares in a company. If your membership is cancelled because you are inactive, expelled or you resign, then the co-operative is required to repay your share capital, considering any loss in value, less any money that you might owe the co-operative and possibly at less than the fixed price of the shares, for example if there is a deficiency. The co-operative can delay repaying this capital in circumstances where repayment might compromise the financial viability of the co-operative (Rule 11).

You cannot ask the co-operative to repurchase the shares that you have invested in the co-operative, unless you have held those shares for at least 2 years. If after such time you wish to request a repurchase, the co-operative will consider such a request, but may refuse to repurchase if it would breach the Co-operatives National Law or compromise the financial stability of the co-operative.

You can sell or transfer your shares to another member or to another person who wants to become a member subject to approval by the Hopsters Co-op Board.

It is important to note that once you purchase shares in Hopsters Co-op, the Board of the Co-Operative will consider this as your commitment to fund a brewery and tap room in addition to securing membership. Should a particular initiative not be successful, the Co-operative may use the funds raised through the sale of shares to undertake a separate initiative provided that it continues to meet the goals set out in this document and our Business Plan.

- Any other potential costs?

The co-operative is a business enterprise and will sell products such as beer, other alcoholic drinks and may sell home brew supplies and brewery related merchandise. We will sell tickets in our beer-related events, such as 'Learn to Brew' education classes.

- Benefits of membership

Become an owner of Australia's first co-operative Brewery

A co-operative is an organisation owned by its members. Members of Hopsters Co-operative Brewery Limited will own their co-operative and its enterprise. Shares in the co-operative can only be owned by people who agree to the Rules and are actively involved.

Members of Hopsters Co-op will receive promotional benefits relating to purchases of products and services, as well as admission to selected events at member prices. Additionally, if the co-operative is successful and makes a sufficient trading surplus, they may also receive a dividend on their share capital, subject to the Board declaring any dividends.

Finally, Hopsters Co-op is built on a business model which encourages collaboration, both within the craft beer-drinking and wider local communities. By joining, you will be supporting other like-minded individuals in establishing a unique business which will actively work to engage with and be shaped by people like you.

- Voting

Co-operatives are democratically run, member focused organisations

Each member has one vote in how the co-operative is managed, and in making the big decisions for the co-operative.

The day to day management of the co-operative is the responsibility of the Board of Directors. The majority of the Directors of Hopsters Co-op must also be members, so their interests will be the same as the interests of all members.

Members vote at the Annual General Meeting and at any other general meeting of the co-operative called to make important decisions such as electing Directors or changing the Rules.

Some important decisions must be made by all members, and the Co-operatives National Law requires these to be made by a special postal ballot. This requirement is designed to ensure that all members have the best opportunity to cast a vote on important decisions affecting their co-operative.

- How to apply for membership and shares

Your application needs to be completed online and must be accompanied by any additional fees, such as an administration fee or postage fees (if applicable), and the amount of money to be paid in respect of the number of shares that you wish to buy (minimum of 5 shares).

You may also purchase additional shares.

The application form and payment form are located on our website, <https://hopsters.coop>

- Election of Directors

In accordance with the Rules (Rule 47) the initial Director's term of office is to be not more than three years ending on the day of the third annual general meeting (AGM) after the formation meeting. After the initial three year period is served Directors are required to retire. A retiring Director may nominate to stand for re-election at the next AGM.

The three year term of office of Directors elected thereafter, is to commence from the annual general meeting at which they are elected and ends on the day of the third annual general meeting thereafter.

All terms of office for Directors elected at an annual general meeting will be for three years. In the event that there is a casual vacancy on the Board the remaining Directors may appoint a person to fill the casual vacancy until the end of the retiring Directors term.

The majority of Directors on the Board must be members of the co-operative. Non-member Directors may be elected to the Board where they have special qualifications and experience that will be of benefit to the co-operative.

The nomination procedure is set out in Rule 47.

There is no restriction on a Director who has already served his or her term of office from nominating to stand for election to the Board for a subsequent term.

- Remuneration of Directors

For the first three years of the operation of the co-operative, Directors will not receive any remuneration for their services, unless the Director is a non-member Director elected to provide specialist skills to the co-operative.

Directors will be entitled to recover expenses for attending co-operative meetings and may be entitled to receive payments for additional services rendered as a contractor, provided that these matters are declared at Board meetings and recorded in any register maintained to record interests of Directors.

After the first three years of the operation of the co-operative, any remuneration or fees paid to Directors must be approved by the members at the annual general meeting.

- Day to day management

The Board may appoint a person or persons to be responsible for the day to day management of the co-operative activities. These persons may be a member of the co-operative or some other person.

Roles may include brewery manager, taproom / bar manager, for example.

The conditions and the period of appointment including termination must be decided by the Board.

- Financial Management

The Treasurer has oversight of the financial management and accounting requirements, working closely with other members of the Board of Directors.

It is important to note that although the Treasurer ensures that these responsibilities are met, much of the work may be delegated to a finance sub-committee (or other Hopsters Co-op sub-committee), paid staff and or third-party companies or individuals.

In summary, the Treasurer's responsibilities include:

1. General financial oversight

3. Financial planning and budgeting
4. Financial reporting
5. Banking, bookkeeping and financial record keeping

- Auditing

Hopsters Co-op expects to be a small co-operative for at least the first three years. Under the Co-operatives National Law, a small co-operative is not required to have its financial statements audited, and members must be provided with basic unaudited financial statements at the Annual General Meeting. Members have a right to require the co-operative to have accounts audited under s271 of the Co-operatives National Law.

To balance the interest of members in the start-up process and to maintain costs during this period at a minimum, the Rules provide that there will be no auditor appointed, however, members will consider and vote on the question of whether to appoint an auditor at each Annual General Meeting. If an auditor is appointed at an Annual General Meeting the terms of that appointment, including whether it will be a continuing appointment, will also be voted upon by members.

● 12 Hopsters Co-op Continuing Disclosure

The following is a living section of this disclosure statement and contains descriptions of current strategic objectives, activities, exposures and changes to the co-operative. History from previous disclosure statements is included for completeness. Most recent updates are presented first.

- Update June 2022

Henry Midgley, Chairperson and Finance Committee Lead, and Matthew Hart, Director, resigned from the board on 3rd of June due to personal reasons. The remaining board members wish Henry and Matt all the best and thank them for their efforts. The board will look to fill the vacancies with casual directors.

- Update May 2022

The NSW government has lifted a number of public health order restrictions which has seen the taproom trade without limits to density. Hopsters is now paying its full monthly rent, and continues to pay the agreed rent deferral from the previous agreement (see: Update February 2021 below). In March 2022, Hopsters upgraded its beer dispensing system at a cost of $5,225.53 inc GST

- Update October 2021

Through the lockdown period, Hopsters was successful in obtaining government support grants that were made available via the NSW Government. Grants included access to the JobSaver program and COVID-19 Business Grant. Hopsters' sole staff member was able to access the Disaster Relief Payment from the Commonwealth Government. In addition, Hopsters was able to seek a 50% waiver of rents due during the period (starting 13th of July) as outlined by the mandate issued by the NSW Small Business Commissioner. Hopsters also worked with its suppliers in negotiating payment plans where appropriate.

The planned reopen date for the Hopsters taproom is scheduled for the 11th of October, in line with the NSW COVID-19 recovery roadmap. Hopsters will operate to reduced conditions as per public health orders, and look to ramp back operating hours to pre-lockdown times.

Hopsters was also successful in receiving approval from NSW Fair Trading on its application to issue Unsecured Notes to the value of $1000 per note. The period for the Unsecured Notes is from 30th of September, through to March 30, 2022.

- Update August 2021

The second wave of the COVID-19 pandemic with the delta strain meant that Greater Sydney went into lockdown in June and continues to have an impact on the Hopsters business. The taproom has been closed in line with public health orders, but opened occasionally for customers to purchase take away beer. Online sales have picked up during this time. The current lockdown period is due to conclude at the end of August.

The Hopsters Board has been meeting weekly to action any tasks required as changes to health orders, restrictions and access to government funding changes. The Hopsters Board has applied for the available government relief packages to support the business during this time. The Hopsters bar manager is on reduced hours until such time normal trading conditions resume.

Hopsters are lodging the Unsecured Notes Disclosure Statement with NSW Fair Trading with the view of offering members and the public an opportunity to invest in the next round of funding.

- Update February 2021

Following the resignation of Ben Dunn from the Board and of the role of Company Secretary 22 January 2021, the following occurred:

- Kieran Bowles accepted a casual Board position minuted at the board meeting 9 February 2021
- Brendan Wilson became Company Secretary

The co-operative has negotiated a payment plan to repay the rent deferred during the COVID-19 period, starting from the period of July 2021. The repayment plan consists of paying down the ~$12,000 debt via monthly repayments of $500 commencing July 2021.

- Dane Glerum resigned 11th August 2020
- Peter Tregilgas, Anton van den Berg and Robert Kerr have tendered their resignation, effective from the FY2020 AGM.

- The co-operative negotiated a 50% reduction in rent for 5 months. Repayments of the balance will be negotiated by both parties as trading returns to normal.

At the 28th of January 2020 Board meeting, in the interests of ongoing transparency the board agreed to keep a register of financial commitments. Listing one-off approvals over $5,000 and ongoing expenses with an annual cost greater than $1,500. Significant income transactions are also included. Reportable transactions in this update are as follows:

- Expenses above threshold 08/09/2020 $11,321.31 to brew and can Hopsters Pale Ale at Rocks Brewing.

Current Goals:

- Manage the co-operatives finances to ensure the business remains solvent under the uncertainty of the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Update December 2019

Based on existing quotes of $153,000 and existing funds of $85,000 the board determined that the cooperative required additional funding to complete the taproom renovation. After consideration of possible options, the board approved the issuance of up to $150,000 of unsecured notes, paying a flat rate of 7% p.a. The unsecured notes issue was approved by NSW Fair Trading on 9 December 2019, with $89,000 raised through the cooperative's membership.

- Update August 2019

Mick Harrigan and Marco Vargas have stepped down from the Board of Directors. Maya Engelbrecht was voted the Chairperson until the next AGM.

Marco Vargas and Byron Lotz have declared an interest in 12 Taps, an enterprise that will have 2 venues in Marrickville and Glebe with a small bar and restaurant licence respectively. The Board has voted that Byron should remain on the Board as Byron serves a fundamental role in heading the Sales and Brewing committees. The Board has determined that in their opinion there is no conflict of interest in Byron's interest in Hopsters Co-op and 12 Taps, and that the association offers the benefit of having an outlet for Hopsters Co-op's beer.

It should be noted that this vote was not unanimous, and some Board members have raised concerns over the timeliness of the disclosure. One Board member has raised an objection that a conflict of interest exists.

Members will be informed of these events and an updated disclosure statement will be made available on the Hopsters Co-op website.

- Update June 2019

Scott O'Brien and Michael O'Shea have stepped down from the Board of Directors. It should be noted that Michael's resignation letter states the reason for his resignation is due to the unacceptable and unprofessional behaviour by another Board member.

- Update Jul 2018

Hopsters Co-Operative Brewery is the first brewery in Australia established under the Co-Operative Principles. It is a place to meet like-minded craft beer lovers who share a similar commitment to sustainability, community, education and above all, member driven beer.

Hopsters Co-op has been pleased with the membership take up rates since the launch of the Co-Operative, however, the rate of take up is below the initial target set by the Board of 250 members by 31st March 2017.

It is evident by the rate of take up that membership fees alone will not generate sufficient capital to achieve our ultimate goal of building Hopsters Co-op own commercial brewery and tap room.

The Board of Hopsters Co-op has never anticipated that membership fees alone would provide all the required capital to achieve our end goal. While some members have purchased additional shares, ongoing efforts to raise membership and capital are required to continue to pursue the goals of the co-operative.

We intend to develop supportive relationships and partnerships with other local, Australian and international Co-Operatives (particularly those Co-Ops in related industries such as Co-Operative bottle shops).

Funding the Brewery and Tap Room

The current goals of our Co-Operative over the coming months leading up to the end of 2018 are to:

- Produce and distribute packaged and kegged beer for members (on our own equipment or via a "gypsy" or contract brewing arrangements)
- Raise additional share capital to fund the brewery through additional member investment or other external financing sources or a combination of these funding sources
- Secure a venue suitable for a tap room and the brewery
- Build and open a brewery and tap room before summer 2018
- Establishing a brewing environment that allows for ongoing education for our members
- Provide the equipment and tools for our Head Brewer to produce the best quality craft beers using our members' recipes

We believe that a small microbrewery arrangement combined with a 50 to 60 person capacity tap room is the ideal initial environment to service these goals.

The proposed initial brewery configuration includes Hopsters Co-op existing 200L system as well as an additional 3 x 200L and 2 x 400L fermenters.

The Board is continuing to work on the business planning, membership drive and securing funding sources with a plan to set up Hopsters Co-op own venue in late 2018 / 2019.

We have estimated how much money it will take to build the Brewery and Tap Room. We now need to demonstrate how we can obtain the necessary capital to achieve our goals.

Hopsters Co-op will need to spend funds on expenses that will not be recoverable if the tap room does not proceed. If the tap room is not able to proceed at the Enmore Road location, for example, Hopsters Co-op could potentially lose $3,300 in a rent holding deposit and up to $6,000 or more in development and licence applications, plus any other professional services fees associated with preparing to lodge the development application. These are real financial considerations and potential risks associated with activities to try and secure a commercial venue for Hopsters Co-op.

Preconditions for a Tap Room & Brewery

- Available premises for brewery and taproom to be located.
- The Landlord of the building has given in-principle support to its development as a craft brewery and tap room
- A signed lease
- Engagement of a town planner
- The town planner will also coordinate with a PCA (private certifier) to assess the likelihood of an approval of a complying development application
- Development approval from the Inner West Council will be required
- All required ATO licences to produce alcohol excise will need to be obtained
- All NSW Office of Liquor, Gaming and Racing (OLGR) liquor licences for on-premise and on-line sales will be required
- An amount of $250,000 is required to cover the cost of initial setup of the brewery, tap room and the cost of the DA and liquor licence applications
- The amount of capital is an estimate based on the initial brewery proposal plan and is subject to a more detailed assessment during the design phase of the project and will take into considerations negotiations with the Landlord in relation to scale of building improvements that are completed prior to taking leasehold possession

If any of the preconditions listed above are not able to be satisfied in the first instance, the co-operative will use any funds obtained to continue looking for a suitable site that is able to meet our goals. The co-operative may also consider winding up and a returning of any capital not used in achieving any DA, licence or other preconditions to members.

Memberships

Hopsters Co-op current assets and cash balances have been built on the sale of memberships and membership in the Hopsters Co-Operative will always play an integral part in our fund-raising efforts.

Additional Member Shares

Existing Hopsters Co-op members will be provided with a facility and this disclosure documentation that will allow for the purchase of additional shares.

Many existing members are expressing an interest in having the option to purchase additional shares and it is a Board priority to implement a system that allows for this.

Hopsters Co-Operative Brewery Limited is a distributing Co-Op which allows the Board to declare dividends if the business is sufficiently profitable and has the cash flow to support payment without detriment to the financial position of the business.

Hopsters Co-op will use the funds raised from any additional shares sold to meet the goals set out in this document and our Business Plan.

Pre-Purchased Beer Sales

Initial packaged beer sales to members will be managed through pre-sales campaigns. This will be done to help manage the demand and cash flow in order to commit to larger contract brew costs to fulfil the orders.

Crowdfunding campaigns

Hopsters Co-op intends to run selective crowdfunding campaigns to support the purchase of specific equipment from time to time. This has been a successful strategy for a number of craft brewers who have garnered support from their customers and community.

Brewing

Hopsters Co-Operative Brewery currently owns a 200 litre brewing system that is being used to pilot and test demand for beer sales amongst our members. This system will also be used to enable a limited amount of beer in kegs to be sold to Sydney craft beer venues.

In addition to the core “Founders” range of beers, our purpose is to allow members to directly participate in the beers that carry the “Hopsters Co-op” name by voting on styles, submitting recipes, and through participation in our homebrew competitions.

• Update Jun 2018

Maya Engelbrecht has joined the Board after serving on the Marketing committee since Feb 2018. She is responsible for welcoming new members and produces the monthly newsletter.

- Update Nov 2017

Hopsters Co-op is working toward raising the capital and locating a place to construct a small-scale brewery in a leased premise. The brewery will also contain a tap room where members and non-members may purchase beer and other beverages for consumption in those premises or take away.

It is intended that the premises will also be used to conduct brewing and other education classes for Hopsters Co-op members and other members of the community.

The brewing will be done by a brewer employed or contracted by the co-operative and assisted by volunteer members until such time as there is sufficient cash flow to employ other staff.

Hopsters Co-op will also make use of other established breweries to do contract brews for packaged beer and kegs until such time as there is sufficient capital and other resources to establish our own venue.

There will be a General Manager employed by the co-operative whose responsibilities will include the purchase of equipment, materials and other resources needed to brew, and the general maintenance and operation of the brewery and taproom facility.

Members and the community will be able to purchase products and services from Hopsters Co-op either at the brewery or online.

Members will receive regular newsletter updates outlining available products, events, promotions and other information relevant to craft brewing from time to time.

Hopsters Co-op has also been engaging members to begin developing the core beer range, and this has resulted in the first 3 core beers (IPA, Saison and Pale Ale).

Members are invited to submit entries into the Hopsters Co-op home brew competitions. The beers are professionally judged against the Beer Judge Certification Program (BJCP) style guidelines. The first three winning beer recipes have then formed part of the proposed core range of Hopsters Co beers – Founders Range. These are a Pale Ale, an IPA and a Saison.

To celebrate the winning beers these Founders Range beer recipes, along with some of the other winning beers, have been brewed and put in small kegs then placed on tap at a few local supportive venues. The kegs have been made available at exclusive member only Hopsters Co-op tasting events.

NOTE 1: STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial report is a general purpose financial report that has been prepared in accordance with Accounting Standards of the Australian Accounting Standards Board and the NSW Co-operatives Act 1992 and the relevant regulations.

The financial report has been prepared on an accruals basis and is based on historical costs and does not take into account changing money values or, except where stated, current valuations of non-current assets. Cost is based on the fair values of the consideration given in exchange for assets. The following is a summary of the material accounting policies adopted by the Co-operative in the preparation of the financial report. The accounting policies have been consistently applied, unless otherwise stated.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Assets purchased with value under $20,000 have been depreciated upon acquisition. Other depreciable fixed assets excluding freehold land and buildings (nil) are depreciated on a straight-line basis.

During the year assets of $4,601 were capitalised. This was primarily for taps and taproom accessories. The taproom fit out is being depreciated over the term of the premises lease and lease option periods (which is 15 years). It is considered the rates of depreciation applied are adequate to write off the cost over the estimated useful lives of the assets commencing from the time the asset is held ready for use. Any gain or loss on disposal of fixed assets is determined as the difference between the carrying value of the asset at the time of disposal and the proceeds from disposal and is included in the results of the co-operative in the year of disposal. There were no gains or losses on disposal during the year.

As at the balance date there were net assets of $173,475 after depreciation mainly comprising the taproom fit out, the 200L brewing system, steel kegs and other brewing equipment.

Notes and Assumptions:

The five-year projections have been prepared by Hopsters Co-operative Finance Committee and have been reviewed by and approved by the Hopsters Co-operative Board of Directors.

There is no denying that Covid-19 has had a devastating impact globally and the timing of Hopsters Co-operative opening the Taproom in March 2020 was particularly hard hitting. The power of a Co-operative and member participation has shown that together, more can be achieved.

Our assumptions show that we will continue to be impacted by Covid-19 for at least the next year with restricted capacity and diminished street traffic, particularly when outbreaks occur across Australia.

But there is a path to profitability.

With continued member-funding to support our expansion into brewing on site, and continued expansion into new revenue channels and markets, the prospects look brighter.

Conservative, moderate and optimistic projections have been prepared. Only the conservative projections are presented in this disclosure document.
